10.1.1. for routine maintenance, modifications to, or unplanned maintenance of the ITP Africa Network and/or any other systems involved in the delivery of the Services;

10.1.2. to mitigate against fraudulent or suspected fraudulent use of the Customer's Service;

10.1.3. per clause 9.6 or 9.7.1 above;

10.1.4. because of problems on third parties' infrastructure which has affected or disrupted the ITP Africa Service;

10.1.5. where certain Services are being abused by the Customer; and/or

10.1.6. where the ITP Africa Service or Managed Service Equipment is found to contain a security risk or shortcoming which enables the Customer to exploit the ITP Africa Service to the detriment of ITP Africa;

10.1.7. where the Customer uses Subscriber Equipment that is not approved by ICASA for such use;

10.1.8. Where the Service is removed because of a take-down notice that ITP Africa is obliged to act on.

10.2. The Customer accepts that the right to suspend the Services is necessary to maintain the quality of Services, the integrity of the ITP Africa Network, and to protect the interest of both the Customer and ITP Africa and that it will remain liable for all Charges which may be levied by ITP Africa during the period of suspension.

10.3. ITP Africa may from time to time, and on notice where this is possible, and without prejudice to any other claims or remedies which ITP Africa may have in terms hereof or in law, discontinue and/or terminate any part of the Contract, or in its discretion disconnect the Managed Service Equipment from the ITP Africa Network in any of the following circumstances:

10.3.3. in response to an instruction from ICASA or in terms of the ECA or some other law or any authority competent to issue such instruction;

10.3.4. if the Customer has received the Service because of fraud or misrepresentation;

10.3.5. if the Customer makes or offers to make any arrangement or composition with its creditors or commits any act of insolvency in terms of the Insolvency Act or any other applicable legislation;

10.3.6. if the Customer is using or permitting the use of the Service or any element thereof for any illegal purpose or in contravention of Applicable Law;

10.3.7. for any other reason incidental to 10.3.1 – 10.3.6 inclusive.

11. BREACH AND TERMINATION

11.1. Should the Customer breach:

11.1.1. its payment obligations and have been suspended for non-payment for a period longer than 7 (seven) days; or

11.1.2. any other term of this Contract and fails to rectify the breach within the notice period provided by ITP Africa (which shall be a reasonable period given the circumstances of the breach);

then ITP Africa will have the right to either suspend or to cancel the Contract(s), without diminishing its right to claim any Anticipatory Costs or early termination penalties.

11.2. Should ITP Africa breach any material term of this Contract, then the Customer will have the right to provide ITP Africa with a letter requiring ITP Africa to rectify the breach within a period of 20 (twenty) Business Days. Should ITP Africa neglect or fail to remedy such breach within the 20 (twenty) Business Days' notice period, then the Customer may cancel the Contract without penalty.

11.3. The Customer shall be liable for all costs, including legal costs on an attorney and client scale, tracing cost and collection commission incurred by ITP Africa in respect of the enforcement of any obligations of the Customer in terms of this Contract.

11.4. Without diminishing any other claims or remedies which ITP Africa may have against the Customer in terms of this Contract or law, ITP Africa may terminate the Contract if the Customer has delayed the installation of the Service for longer than 3 (three) months and hold the Customer liable for Anticipatory Costs incurred by ITP Africa in this regard.

12. SUPERVENING IMPOSSIBILITY

Except as expressly provided under the Contract, ITP Africa shall not be liable to the Customer for failure to perform any obligation because of any acts of God, government restrictions or prohibitions or any other Government act or omission, any act or default of any supplier, industrial disputes, strikes, lockouts or work stoppages of any kind or any other similar or dissimilar cause, in so far as these were not foreseeable and beyond ITP Africa's reasonable control. Should any event contemplated in this clause prevent the provision of uninterrupted Service for a period exceeding four weeks, the Customer shall be entitled to terminate the affected Service without penalty.

13. CUSTOMER ASSISTANCE, DISPUTES OR COMPLAINTS

13.1. Technical Complaints and Billing Queries

13.1.1. ITP Africa can be contacted for technical support and account queries at the details provided at <https://www.itpafrika.co.za/support/>.

13.1.2. If the Customer experiences any trouble with any of the Services or with the Charges, it must bring the problem to ITP Africa's attention by raising a trouble ticket with ITP Africa by telephone, email or in the ITP Africa Portal. The issue will then be logged and detailed, and the Customer will be provided with a reference number.

13.1.3. ITP Africa will use its best endeavours to attend to the trouble tickets as soon as it is possible, which will depend on the complexity and nature of the problem as well as resource availability.

13.1.4. Where Customer has exhausted all levels of escalation and remains of the view that the matter has not been resolved to the satisfaction of the Customer, the Customer will have the right to refer the matter to ISPA, which can be done via the complaints form at <http://ispa.org.za/code-of-conduct/complaints-form/>.

13.2. Complaints: If Customer has a complaint that is not related to the performance of the Service or related to a billing query, the Customer must follow the ITP Africa complaints process as amended from time to time and made available on the ITP Africa website.

13.3. Single Forum Resolution: The above rights are without prejudice to both Parties' respective rights to pursue a complaint or action in any other forum that has jurisdiction over the matter including the rights to submit the complaint to ICASA, provided that the same complaint shall not be lodged at more than one forum.

14. CONSEQUENCES OF TERMINATION

After termination of the Contract for whatever reason:

14.1. ITP Africa may, on reasonable notice and in the Customer's, presence enter the Customer's premises to remove the Managed Service Equipment which is owned by ITP Africa; and 14.2. Customer will remain liable for and will pay on demand all charges and/or costs outstanding at the time of termination or accrued thereafter because of the termination.

15. LIMITED LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

15.1. In respect of internet-based services, ITP Africa only provides access to the Internet. ITP Africa does not operate or control the information, services, opinions or other content of the Internet. ITP Africa reserves the right to take measures as may be necessary, in ITP Africa's sole discretion, to ensure security and continuity of service on the ITP Africa Network, including but not limited to identification and blocking or filtering of internet traffic sources which ITP Africa deems to pose a security risk or operational risk or a violation of its AUP. In addition, the Customer understands that ITP Africa does not own or control other third-party networks outside of the ITP Africa Network, and ITP Africa is not responsible or liable for filtering or access restrictions imposed by such networks or for the performance (or non-performance) within such networks or within interconnection points between ITP Africa Network and other third-party networks.

15.2. The Customer is responsible for maintaining the security of its internal network from unauthorised access through the Internet. ITP Africa shall not be liable for unauthorised access to the Customer's network or other breaches of the Customer's network security. The Customer shall remain fully responsible to ITP Africa for any usage billed to Customer's account up to 30 minutes after Customer had logged an official support ticket with ITP Africa requesting suspension of the Services impacted by unauthorised access to the Services.

15.3. ITP Africa assumes no responsibility for the integrity, correctness, retention or content of electronic data transported via the ITP Africa Network.

15.4. Subject to the provisions of clause 15.6 below, ITP Africa shall not be liable to the customer or to any third party for claims that arise or occur because of the customer's use of the services, whether such claim, action or damage is direct or indirect, consequential or contingent. ITP Africa shall not be liable for any loss of life; injury; medical expenses; support; financial loss or financial support; loss of earnings; loss of profit and/or income; loss of revenue; loss of business or goodwill; any other special damages; or any general damages – regardless of whether it was foreseeable or flowed naturally from the use of the Services.

15.5. Customer indemnifies ITP Africa against any claim or action which may be brought by any third party arising out of Customer's use of the Services or out of the use of the Customer's Services.

15.6. Where a Consumer suffers any loss or damages because of the use of the ITP Africa Service, the Consumer, in this case, will be allowed to avail itself to the provisions housed under section 61 of the CPA, but subject always to the defences and exceptions permissible and available to ITP Africa and its service providers under section 61 of the CPA.

15.7. The limitation on liability set out above is in addition to any limitation of liability set out elsewhere under the Contract.

16. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION, RIGHTS TO PRIVACY AND RICA

16.1. ITP Africa reserves the right to make general credit reference enquiries about the Customer and to check the correctness of the information that has been supplied. ITP Africa shall also be entitled to furnish any information relating to the Customer's account and compliance with these conditions to any registered credit bureau.

16.2. The Customer warrants and represents that all information supplied by it is accurate, correct and complete.

16.3. ITP Africa will use the Customer's Personal Data strictly in accordance with the Regulations promulgated in terms of Section 69 of the ECA or the Protection of Personal Information Act, whichever is applicable.

16.4. Customer will provide ITP Africa with all required Personal Data and other details which ITP Africa is required to obtain from the Customer in terms of section 39 or 40 of RICA.

16.5. Customer shall not transfer the Service to another person, other than a family member or dependent.

16.6. The Customer acknowledges and accepts that where the Customer does not comply with these provisions, it will amount to a material breach by the Customer of the Contract.

17. GENERAL

17.1. Cession, delegation, assignment: Neither Party may cede, delegate, assign, charge, transfer or otherwise dispose of this Contract or any rights or obligations therein in whole or in part, without the written consent of the other Party. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or unduly delayed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, ITP Africa may assign any and all of its rights and obligations hereunder: (i) to any ITP Africa affiliate (as defined the Companies Act, 71 of 2008); (ii) to a third party pursuant to any sale or transfer of substantially all the assets or business of ITP Africa or a ITP Africa affiliate; or (iii) to a third party pursuant to any financing, merger, or re-organisation of ITP Africa or a ITP Africa affiliate.

17.2. Applicable laws and Jurisdiction: This Contract will be interpreted and governed by the laws of South Africa.

17.3. Variation and Amendment: Subject to and save where the right to amend the Contract, has been mentioned explicitly under the Contract, neither party may vary the terms of the Contract unless the other party agrees to such variation and the variation is reduced to writing and signed by both parties.

17.4. Consumer status: Certain rights have been granted to a Customer who is a Consumer. ITP Africa reserves the right to withhold any of these rights and/or resultant benefits until the Customer can prove to ITP Africa, which proof may be in the form of a set of Financial statements or an identity document, that it is a Consumer (and in the case of a right which it wants to exercise under section 14 of the CPA, that it is an Individual Consumer). Where the Customer is unable to show that it is a Consumer or Individual Consumer, ITP Africa reserves the right to reverse or call for a refund of any rights or benefits which are permitted under the CPA and which the Customer has unlawfully taken advantage of.

17.5. Customer details and changes thereto: The Customer agrees to supply ITP Africa with such information, documentation and signatures that ITP Africa may reasonably require at the time that the Contract is concluded, to give effect to the payment arrangements of the Contract. Any subsequent changes that affect the information supplied to ITP Africa such as bank account or legal service address must be brought to the immediate attention of ITP Africa in writing.

17.6. Whole Contract: The Contract contains the sole and entire record of the agreement between the Parties. No Party shall be bound by any express or implied term, representation, warranty, promise or the like not recorded in writing and signed by both Parties or otherwise created by operation of law. For clarity, where it appears from the context of multiple Subscriber Agreements concluded between the Parties that they are intended to be read as one Contract, then the Subscriber Agreements shall not be deemed to constitute separate and divisible Contracts, and in such event, conflicting provisions of General Terms shall be resolved with the ordinary rules of interpretation.

17.7. Indulgences: No indulgence, leniency or extension of time which either Party ("the grantor") may grant or show to the other, shall in any way prejudice the grantor or preclude the grantor from exercising any of its rights in the future. Any indulgence or the relaxing of the provisions of the Contract by the grantor shall not prejudice the right of the grantor to insist on the strict compliance by the defaulting Party of its undertakings and obligations in terms of the Contract.

17.8. Severability: In the event of any one or more of these terms and conditions being unenforceable, the offending clauses will be severed from the remainder of the Contract, which will nevertheless continue to be binding and enforceable.

18. LEGAL ADDRESS FOR SERVICE

18.1. The Parties choose the addresses set out below as their chosen place to receive legal notices:

18.1.1. ITP Africa at 12 Pieter Uys Street, Witfield, Boksburg, 1459. Notices must also be emailed to legalnotifications@itpafrika.co.za; and 18.1.2. the Customer at the physical or residential address specified in the Subscriber Contract. Where Customer has entered into multiple Subscriber Contracts, then the physical address specified in the Subscriber Contract most recently signed by the Customer or its authorised representative.

18.2. All notices given in terms of this Contract shall be in writing. General notices that do not commence legal proceedings shall be sufficiently provided to either Party by way of email, or where applicable by any other electronic messaging service.

19. CANCELLATION PROCESS

19.1. Unless ITP Africa expressly agrees to the contrary in writing, Customer must cancel services on at least 90 days' advance notice to take effect at the end of the Initial Period or the Renewal Period, failing which ITP Africa may charge the Customer a cancellation fee.

19.2. Cancellations must be processed through the cancellation request form in the ITP Africa Portal, or Customer must send a cancellation request to cancellations@itpafrika.co.za. The online cancellation request form will reflect the duration that is left for each Service as well as the cancellation fee (if any) of each Service. Cancellations received by email will be followed up with a quote setting out the cancellation fee (if any) of each Service.

19.3. Email cancellations must contain at least the following information:

19.3.1. The Customer's account number; and 19.3.2. The description of the Service/s to be cancelled as is described on the Customer's invoice.

19.4. ITP Africa will not be deemed to have received a cancellation notice unless it has issued Customer with written confirmation of receipt and a unique reference number. If Customer is not furnished with a unique reference number within 48 hours of transmitting its cancellation notice, Customer must escalate to talk2us@itpafrika.co.za.

19.5. ITP Africa's processing of a cancellation request shall be without prejudice to its right to any claim that it may have in terms of this Contract. Customer acknowledges that in many instances cancellation of Services is not reversible or may attract financial penalties, and therefore ITP Africa may delay the actual termination of Services after acknowledging receipt of a cancellation notice to communicate to Customer the consequences of termination and to allow Customer to withdraw a cancellation notice.

19.6. Customer shall remain liable for any Charges raised by ITP Africa against the Customer's account after the Customer has sent ITP Africa a cancellation notice that is not processed in the manner set out herein.
